

Ben Wacek

BEN WACEK, ASSOCIATE FINANCIAL ADVISOR – LAURA A. KUNTZ, CPA, MBT FIRM

Ben Wacek is an Associate Financial Advisor with Laura A. Kuntz, CPA, MBT, an independent firm associated with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. Ben's role is to serve existing clients through research, review preparation, analysis, and a number of other tasks. After taking CFP courses through Minnesota State University, Mankato over the last two years, Ben passed the CFP exam in March of this year.

Ben graduated from Bethel University in December of 2006 with a Bachelor of Business degree and an emphasis in both finance and marketing. As a student at Bethel, he was active within the school, as well as in the community.

Today Ben is actively involved in the Financial Planning Association and serves on the Career Development Committee. He is also a member of NexGen, the leading forum for issues affecting the next generation of financial planners.

A resident of South Minneapolis, Ben enjoys running, playing sports, tutoring urban high school students, and being involved in his church.